

The Glory of God

The Westminster Confession declares that the, "Chief end of man is to glorify God and enjoy Him forever." This dual concept is seen in Psalm 16:8-9, "I have set the Lord always before me therefore my heart is glad." The Glory of God is a field of study that will enlarge our understanding of who God is and how we are to relate to Him.

I. Definition and Description of Glory of God

A. Lexical Consideration

1. Old Testament

a. Kabod

This is used to represent God's presence and illumination at His appearing (Ex. 16:7, 10; 33:18; Duet. 5:24; Isa. 40:5), and of His presence in the sanctuary (Ex. 40:34; 1 Kgs. 8:10; Ps. 26:8. When God's presence is gone it is spoken of in 1 Sam. 4:21, "The glory of the Lord has departed "kabod." It can also mean "heavy." God is a heavy-weight.

b. Shekinah

The term Shekinah, glory of God, is often used in sermons, however it is not technically a form of glory, but a way of signifying the presence of God.

(1) Definition

The term is used for the idea of dwelling. The Jews did not like to refer to God directly so they would use circumlocution to signify God's presence. The root of the term means "to dwell". The noun form is used to refer to a dwelling place. Genesis 9:27 reveals that God has promised to dwell with man. In Exodus 13:21ff, God dwelled and revealed His glory-cloud which represented His protective presence. The term for tabernacle, "dwelling," is built off the Hebrew root for dwelling and the term that is often used for Shekinah in the Jewish literature.

(2) Description

The dwelling of God with His people is seen in the incarnation (Col. 1:19; 2:9), and in the transfiguration. The glory of the Lord rests on those in Christ (Rom. 9:23; Eph. 1:18; Col. 1:11, 27). Jesus is described as the “Lord of Glory” (1 Cor. 2:8; Jas. 2:1). The glory of Christ is seen in His resurrection (Rom. 6:4).

Paul was blinded by the glory of the brightness of the Lord (Acts 9:3-9; 22:6-11; 26:12-18). Hebrews 1:3 speaks of the Christ reflecting the glory of God.

The Holy Spirit is also represented as the Shekinah or dwelling of God. The Spirit descended and remained on Jesus (Jo. 1:33). At Pentecost, the Spirit came down and rested on the 120 disciples. Also there appeared to them tongues of fire “resting” on them—the presence of God dwelling on the people of God.

2. New Testament

a. doxa

To think, hold an opinion, magnify, extol, praise, to clothe with splendor; this is the normal term used to refer to God and the glory due Him.

- (6) 1 Thessalonians 2:19—Paul looked for glory to be given him from Christ.

b. timh

To worship, esteem, honor value; not used often to refer to God and His honor or glory as seen through the LXX. In the Old Testament timh is used for kabod and the idea of giving honor to parents (Ex. 20:12). In the New Testament, timh is often used to convey the idea of dignity of office or position.

- (1) Psalm 8:3-8—Man’s position of honor in creation
- (2) Romans 13:7
- (3) 1 Peter 2:17

But He said, "You cannot see My face, for no man can see Me and live!"

Then the LORD said, "Behold, there is a place by Me, and you shall stand there on the rock; and it will come about, while My glory is passing by, that I will put you in the cleft of the rock and cover you with My hand until I have passed by. If you are reviled for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the Spirit of glory and of God rests upon you. Conclusion

The God of glory has made all of creation and all His creatures to worship, glorify, and enjoy Him forever. (There is a cause-effect relationship to the act of giving glory to God and the result of enjoying Him.) If we are to know God, we must know who He is and what He desires of us. Our God desires that we acknowledge who He is and approach Him boldly in praise and honor. This gives Glory to the Lord our God.
